LETTER FROM GARCIA-INCHAUSTEGUI
TO SECRETARY GENERAL UTHANT
[REDACTED] OCTOBER 27, 1962 [REDACTED]

(Unofficial Version)

Excellency:

On the instructions of the Revolutionary Government of Cuba I have the honor to transmit to you the following message:

"Your Excellency:

I have received your message dated October 26, and express my appreciation of your noble concern.

Cuba is prepared to discuss as fully as may be necessary, its differences with the United States and to do everything in its power, in cooperation with the United Nations, to resolve the present crisis. However, it flatly rejects the violation of the sovereignty of our country involved in the naval blockade, an act of force and war committed by the United States against Cuba. In addition, it flatly rejects the presumption of the United States to determine what actions we are entitled to take within our country, what kind of arms we consider appropriate for our defense, what relations we are to have with the USSR, and what international policy steps we are entitled to take, within the rules and laws governing relations between the peoples of the world and the principles governing the United Nations, in order to guarantee our own security and sovereignty.

Cuba is victimizing no one; it has violated no international law; on the contrary, it is the victim of the aggressive acts of the United States, such as the naval blockade, and its rights have been outraged.

The Revolutionary Government of Cuba would be prepared to accept the compromises that you request as efforts in favor of peace, provided that at the same time, while negotiations are in progress, the United States Government desists from threats and aggressive actions against Cuba, including the naval blockade of our country.

'At the same time I express to you our willingness to consider attentively any new suggestion you may put forward, furthermore, should you consider it useful to the cause of peace, our government would be glad to receive you in our country, as Secretary General of the United Nations, with a view to direct discussions on the present crisis, prompted by our common purpose of freeing mankind from the dangers of war.

Unreserved respect for the sovereignty of Cuba is the essential prerequisite if Cuba is to contribute with the greatest sincerity and goodwill, grudging no step towards the solution of the present problem, and joining forces with all those peoples who are struggling to save peace at this dramatic moment in the life of mankind; Cuba can do whatever is asked of it, except undertake to be a victim and to renounce the rights which belong to every sovereign state.

I reiterate the assurances of my highest consideration.

Major Fidel Castro Ruz, Prime Minister of the Revolutionary Government of Cuba"

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
